AGREEMENT:

1. RESIDENCE HALL HOUSING ASSIGNMENT

1.1. Agreement
By signing the 2018 Summer Residence Hall Contract Signature Page below, you, the undersigned ("Resident"), agree to the terms and conditions of this 2018 Summer Residence Hall Contract ("contract"). This contract is for a space in a University Residence Hall and not for any specific room or bed. This contract is not a lease. The University and those acting on its behalf or at its request may, when warranted, remove any person from the Residence Halls without resort to the procedures set forth in ORS 105.105 through 105.168. To the extent applicable, Resident expressly, voluntarily, and knowingly waives those procedures. This contract may not be assigned, subleased or transferred without the express written consent of the University.

1.2. Room Assignments
Subject to the provisions of this contract, the University agrees to provide Resident with space in a Residence Hall. The University will attempt to accommodate Resident’s space preferences; however, the University does not guarantee assignment to a particular building, transfer, type of accommodation, specific roommate, or single room. The University reserves the right to assign smokers together due to the potential allergies or sensitivities that can exist on smoker’s clothing and belongings. Unless approved under Section 1.3, Resident agrees to reside in the room that Resident is assigned. Residing in a room other than the room assigned may result in a $50 improper Check-In fee and/or student conduct charges. University Housing and its complexes are fully furnished. Housing does not provide or supply equipment such as air conditioning units, fans, or heaters as the complexes have central air systems for the community spaces and heaters in resident rooms.

1.3. Room Changes

1.3.1. Resident requested room change. Resident may request a room change. Changes will be granted at the University’s sole discretion and made on a priority and space available basis as well as other considerations. Upon notification that a room change is approved, Resident agrees to complete the change within 48 hours. Other than the first room change, a $10 administrative charge will be assessed to the Resident’s University account for every completed room change. Residents who receive an approved room change and have not transferred into the new room on or before the deadline will be charged a $50 improper Check-Out fee. Residents who leave for break between terms without, as applicable, transferring out of their old room and into their new room will be charged a $100 holdover fee.

1.3.2. University initiated room change. The University may change Resident’s room assignment if (1) it determines that such a change is in the best interest of the University (this includes, but is not limited to, changes based on administrative need such as campus projects, and/or facility repairs), (2) it is necessary in order to comply with any sanction or interim measure (3) it is necessary in order to comply with an emergency action imposed by the Student Conduct Office or (4) the Resident poses a health and safety risk to Resident or other campus community members. If the University changes Resident’s room assignment or houses Resident off-campus as a result of Resident’s actions, the University has the right to charge any fees associated with the change to Resident.

1.4. Temporary Assignment
Late applicants may be assigned a temporary space. Furnishings may vary for facilities that are used temporarily to accommodate increased demand for housing. When a different room becomes available, Residents agree to complete the room transfer within 48 hours of notification. Residents assigned a temporary space will be charged the double room and board rate with their requested meal plan. Temporary assignments may also be made in the case of an emergency.

1.5. Double Room Vacancies
If Resident’s roommate vacates the room, one or more of the following may occur: (1) Resident may be required to change rooms; (2) Resident may be given the option to remain in the room and pay the single room rate; or (3) Resident may be allowed to stay in the double room and pay the double room rate and the University Housing may assign a new roommate at a later date. If Resident’s roommate vacates the room, Resident must keep Resident’s personal belongings on the side of the room Resident is occupying unless otherwise permitted. If Resident’s personal belongings are left in another part of the room and prevent occupancy by another resident assigned to the double room, Resident will be charged a $100 holdover fee. The University has the discretion to exercise any of these options.

1.6. Single Room Vacancies
Single rooms are assigned on a priority basis according to the date of Check-In and availability. Priority is provided to students requiring ADA accommodations. If Resident wants to move from a single room to a double room, Resident is responsible for requesting a room change and will be assigned to a room with a current resident. The single room rate will apply until a reassignment to a double room occurs.

1.7. Eligibility
Enrollment. In order to be eligible for summer housing, Resident must be enrolled at the University or in a University-sponsored workshop or program for a minimum of one credit hour. However, Residents are eligible to live in the Residence Halls without taking classes from June 18, 2018 to June 22, 2018, if they are a 2017-18 academic year resident and are registered for summer classes that begin no later than the week of June 25, 2018. Residents are also eligible to live in the Residence Halls...

In no event, however, will the Contract Term go past September 7, 2018. For more information regarding the RCA, please go to https://ba.uoregon.edu/content/faqs-student-billing-account. By accepting the terms of this contract, Resident agrees to be bound by the terms of the RCA, including interest rate and overdue billing charge terms. Dining venue hours may change throughout the Summer.

4.2. Meal Plan Options

Standard - 80 points per week. This plan is for students who seldom skip a meal and are typically on campus over the weekend.

To use a convenience entry, Resident is required to show a form of picture identification and provide Resident’s student identification number. Meals may not be shared or transferred. Residents who lend their UO ID Cards will be assessed a $25 charge in addition to the meal points or Duck Bucks used during the unauthorized entry and may be subject to further disciplinary action. Residents are required to notify University Housing immediately upon the issuance of a UO ID Card that bears a new student identification number.

6. RESPONSIBILITY FOR DAMAGE AND LOSS

Unless this contract has been previously executed, Check-In establishes Resident’s acceptance of this contract, including the terms of payment outlined above. Further, Check-In constitutes acceptance of the condition of the room and contents at the time of occupancy and, therefore, becomes the standard for the condition of the room and contents at the termination of occupancy.

Except as stated hereafter, the University shall give the Resident at least three days’ notice of its intent to terminate (“Termination Notice”) prior to terminating this contract. The Termination Notice will state the basis for termination and the termination date (“Termination Date”). Resident may contest the Termination Notice by responding to it with the reasons why termination is not appropriate and/or may request a hearing. The University must receive Resident’s response prior to the Termination Date. In reply to Resident’s response, the University may revoke its Termination Notice, set a hearing date, or respond to the Resident’s letter. If the University revokes the Termination Notice, the Resident shall be treated as if the notice was never sent. If the University sets a hearing date, it will send a notice to Resident stating the hearing date and explaining the underlying process. At the hearing, the University may exercise any of its rights under the contract, including modifying or terminating the contract. If the University replies to the Resident’s response confirming that it intends to terminate the contract or if the Resident does not respond to the Termination Notice, the contract will terminate on the Termination Date and the University shall be entitled to possession of the Resident’s assigned room. Any personal property left behind by the Resident after the Termination Date shall be deemed abandoned and the University shall be entitled to dispose of it in any manner. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Resident poses a health or safety risk to himself/herself or others or it is necessary to comply with emergency actions, sanctions issued by the University, or an order, judgment, or demand issued by a court or agency having legal jurisdiction, the University may immediately terminate this contract and take possession of Resident’s assigned room.
9.2. Effect of Default
Resident is in default if Resident fails to pay as required under Section 2 or breaches any other term of this contract. In addition to those remedies outlined in Section 9, upon default, Resident may not be able to register for future course work in the University or receive transcripts, diploma, or degree.

Amendments to this contract may be requested in writing and by petition only. Petition forms are available online at https://housing.uoregon.edu/myhousing. Verbal or pending written requests do not constitute a change in the conditions of this contract. Petitions are reviewed on an individual basis based on each set of circumstances. Amendments granted to one provision of this contract shall be done in writing and shall not be construed as waivers of any other provisions. The final determination on such petitions is at the discretion of University Housing. Except as provided for in this contract, no other amendments or modifications to this contract are allowed.

12.2. Emergencies/Disruptions
In the case of an emergency, the University is not responsible for the continuation of food, mail, custodial, linen, heating, maintenance, or security service at normal levels. An emergency includes, but is not limited to, the occurrence of a natural disaster, strike or lockout of public employees or suppliers’ employees, power/water/sewer interruptions from on- or off-campus sources, or other events beyond the control or reasonable anticipation of University. The University is not responsible for construction noise or disruptions associated with construction sites adjacent to the Residence Hall.

12.3. Applicable Law
This contract is governed by and shall be construed in accordance with the laws in the State of Oregon, without resort to any other jurisdiction’s conflict of laws, rules or doctrines. Any claim, action, or suit between the University and Resident that rises out of or relates to this contract shall be brought and conducted solely and exclusively within Lane County Circuit Court for the State of Oregon. Resident knowingly and expressly consents to the jurisdiction of the State and Federal Courts located in Lane County, Oregon.

12.4. Severability
The invalidity, illegality, or enforceability of any provision of this contract shall not affect the validity, legality, or enforceability of any other provision of this contract, which shall remain in full force and effect and shall be liberally construed in order to effectuate the purpose and intent of this contract.

12.5. Survival
All of Resident’s obligations of this contract which, by their nature, are continuing, will survive expiration or termination of this contract (except to the extent that the Resident is released of the obligation by the University).

12.6. Disclaimer and Dispute Resolution Provisions
In no event, including negligence or strict liability, shall the University be liable for: (1) damages that exceed the amount paid by Resident under this contract; or (2) incidental, consequential, or indirect damages. In the event the University is required to hire an attorney to enforce any provision of this contract, the University shall be entitled to its attorney fees. These fees include, but are not limited to, fees incurred on appeal, expert fees, and deposition transcript fees.

12.7. Asbestos Disclosure
Some University apartment and housing units may contain building products that include asbestos. Asbestos may be present in small amounts in sheetrock wall coatings and other finishes. Asbestos has been identified as a potential health concern if building materials incorporating asbestos are not managed and maintained properly. Residents should not install nails or screws, sand or grind the walls, or use double-sided tape on the walls or ceilings in University housing because this may result in damage to building materials, releasing dust that may contain asbestos. Finishes are inspected prior to resident arrival to ensure that they are in good repair and pose no hazard. Maintaining the finishes in the condition they are in at resident Check-In will ensure safety. Questions about lead, asbestos or any potentially hazardous substances may be directed to the University Housing.

12.8. Lead Disclosure
The University of Oregon manages a voluntary drinking water monitoring program for campus buildings, including residence halls. The University regularly tests water fixtures commonly used for drinking and cooking, such as drinking fountains and dispensers, and sink faucets in bathrooms, break rooms, and kitchen prep areas. When levels of lead from these fixtures exceed EPA-recommended levels for schools and childcare facilities, the University removes those fixtures from use, provides residents alternative water sources, and makes repairs until tests are below EPA-recommended levels. Residents will be notified throughout this process. More information is available on the University's website regarding its drinking water monitoring program at https://safety.uoregon.edu/drinking-water-monitoring.
